Offense Information

Docket # CR-16-603481-C

Offense Summary

The following information was obtained from the Cleveland Police Department Report: On 06/11/2015, Cleveland Police Department (CPD) Officers tasked with the enforcement of pharmaceutical drug laws was contacted by Walgreens Pharmacist Josh Close who reported that a female had attempted to fill a fraudulent South West General prescription for #120 Percocet 5/325 on a Dr. Shirley Bennett prescription paper. This prescription was verified as being fraudulent. This information was shared with WEB (West Shore Enforcement Bureau) Officers. Investigators determined that multiple fraudulent South West General prescriptions had been filled in the Cleveland area. Investigators agreed to conduct a joint investigation. This investigation revealed that numerous blank prescriptions had been taken from South West General Hospital by an employee who along with others filled or attempted to fill, forged or fraudulent prescriptions written for strong opiate based pain medication in the Cleveland area. Amanda Burns, the defendant, along with her co-defendants Sabrina Carr, Tracy Tomblin, and Jamie Mets all participated in this illegal activity to obtain prescription paper, create fraudulent prescriptions and fill those forged/fraudulent prescriptions.

After a lengthy investigation, it was revealed that fraudulent prescriptions had been filled at the Walgreens store #12444 located at 3415 Clark Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio, and received by Amanda Burns, the defendant. The investigation revealed that on 08/02/2014, the defendant received 45 Oxycodone 5/325 pills and on 06/02/2014, she received 120 Percocet 05/325 pills. The Officer Manager for Dr. Shirley Bennett wrote in a written statement, "She (Dr. Bennett) does not write RX for Percocet over #30. Also Jamie Metz, Tracy Tomblin, Amanda Burns & Sabrina Carr are not patients of Dr. Bennett."

During this investigation, Jamie Metz and her sister Amanda Burns were contacted several times. Messages were left by CPD Officers on cell phone numbers recovered during this investigation. At the time of this report, no contact has been received from either Jamie Metz or the defendant.

Defendant's Version

After being advised of her rights, the defendant wished to provide a statement.

The following statement was obtained from the defendant: "Just that I was at work and my manager approached me, asked me to do her a favor and take a prescription to Walgreens. I said no problem. She told me she was going to put it in my name and I asked her if I will get in trouble for this. She said, "No". And then I wondered if I should do it but I didn't want her mad at me. She made my schedule and I didn't want to lose any hours at work, so I did it. And I really regret it right now. How naive I was. I realized now after the fact that, that was something that was not legal."
